About Family Promise of Sacramento

Family Promise of Sacramento helps homeless families achieve self-sufficiency and regain a home for themselves and their children through an interfaith hospitality network of diverse faith communities. A family consists of at least one child and one adult held together by bonds of love and commitment where the adult (s) have the responsibility for the care and nurturing of the children. If you would like to volunteer, acquire more information about Family Promise or have a speaker at your organization.

please call 443-3107.

MORE WAYS TO HELP

Ink Cartridges

Stop! Don't throw those used ink cartridges away. We turn them into Office Max and get credit towards office supplies. We have made $300 in the last three months! Thank you for helping us fill this need.

Vehicle Donation

If you have a vehicle that you no longer use, need the tax write off and don't want to mess with selling it, remember Family Promise of Sacramento. We accept vehicles that are in running condition for resale to help support programs of Family Promise of Sacramento.

Future Bequest

We want to make sure that Family Promise of Sacramento is around in the years to come to help provide services to homeless families. Please remember Family Promise in your Will/Trust to help make this happen. If you have any questions, please call Executive Director, Marsha Spell at (916) 443-3107

Join the 360 Club

As a 360 CLUB member, Your pledge of $30 a month will help provide emergency needs such as shoes, clothing, work cards, birth certificates and so much more. Join today CALL (916) 443-3107

The celebration dinner was held May 4, with past and current families joining in the celebration.
